

Sip responsibly, Live vibrantly

What is Planty

Planty is a celebration of Mauritian plants and their cultural heritage, brought to life through carefully crafted infusions. Rooted in local craftsmanship, it combines unique Mauritian teas with Organic and Fair For Life Mauritian herbs, fruits, and spices. Our blends range from caffeine-free herbal teas, to fruity green and black teas.

The associations of ingredients in Planty is a tribute to the unique terroir of the island. Each product is locally grown and hand-picked, carefully crafted and presented in a locally-printed packaging made from renewable forests.

Planty by La Maison Corson

La Maison Corson has been crafting Mauritian teas for generations. From a humble plantation in Curepipe's highlands, it introduced the Assam Hybrid tea seeds from Ceylon in 1886 and shaped the identity of Mauritian tea with the popular vanilla black tea. As it embraces the new millennium, La Maison Corson continues to innovate, upholding its commitment to quality and its pioneering spirit. By creating Planty, La Maison Corson is initiating a new era in the Mauritian tea industry. Planty revitalizes underutilized tea grades, crafts unique artisanal teas, and brings to market local fair trade organic ingredients.
